

Real World

The first system of music shows a drumset part in 4/4 time. It begins with a rest for the first measure, followed by a series of eighth notes and quarter notes. The notation includes various rhythmic patterns and rests, with some notes marked with a circled 'x'.

Verse 1

Verse 1 consists of two systems of drumset notation. The first system features a steady eighth-note pattern on the snare and bass drum, with occasional quarter notes. The second system continues this pattern, including a section with a circled 'x' above the notes, possibly indicating a specific drum sound or technique.

Verse 2

Verse 2 consists of two systems of drumset notation. The first system shows a consistent eighth-note groove. The second system introduces a more complex pattern with a circled 'x' above the notes, suggesting a change in the drumset part.

Chorus

The Chorus consists of two systems of drumset notation. The first system features a steady eighth-note pattern. The second system continues this pattern, with a circled 'x' above the notes, indicating a specific drum sound or technique.

Verse 3

Verse 3 consists of two systems of drumset notation. The first system shows a steady eighth-note groove. The second system continues this pattern, including a section with a circled 'x' above the notes, possibly indicating a specific drum sound or technique.

Chorus

The final Chorus consists of two systems of drumset notation. The first system features a steady eighth-note pattern. The second system continues this pattern, with a circled 'x' above the notes, indicating a specific drum sound or technique.
